Dear Editor:

Hanna-Barbera Presents #2 offers up what amounts to an updating of the Wacky Races. Bad points: Chugaboom is reduced to a cameo this time and that hurts. Good points: EVERYTHING ELSE!... Having a veteran hand like Alfredo Alcalá inking Scooby's adventures brings the series closer to the--pardon the expression--spirited works of Dan Spiegle, who should be lured for at least one fill-in.

Jacob Gilbert
Troy, NY

(Guess what, Jacob, and all the rest of you who have commented, Dan Spiegle and Mark Evanier have already finished their first Scooby outing since who knows when and are already at work on a second! The first one appears as Scooby-Doo #11. Don't miss it.)

Dear Sir:

I reeealy love your comic books. When I go to the Co-op, I just have to get one of them or my Mom can't leave. Sometimes I just read them but I don't buy any.

Cheryl Howe
Strathmore, Alberta, Canada

(Cheryl, why not instead buy them and not read them? I'm kidding. Thanks for your keen interest.)

Dear Editor:

I collect old comic books of The Jetsons. I want to thank you for bringing them back. The issues have been great. Now I'm also hooked on The Flintstones.

Catherine Reinfelder
Cincinnati, Ohio

(Next, Catherine, we have to get you hooked on Scooby-Doo, Hanna-Barbera All Stars and Hanna-Barbera Presents. Then we'll be satisfied. We love hearing from you.)

Dear Editor:

I like to read Atom Ant and Secret Squirrel. Could they come out monthly?

Jacob Planck
Haines Falls, NY

(It all depends on the sales, Jacob. If enough of you out there feel the same way, I'm sure that could be arranged. Meanwhile, we'll certainly see those two super guys quite often, we promise.)

Hello:

My name is Jon Hayne and I'm eighteen years old and attend high school. I've been a fan of your cartoons ever since I can remember. I think it's great that you guys are still doing it. I still buy them and they only get better. Please keep it alive.

Do you have a fan club? Are you guys going to do any other series of comic books? I was wondering how I can get past issues.

Thank you for your time. I felt I owed you guys for all the hours of entertainment you've provided me. Thank you.

Jon W. Hayne
Plymouth, MN

(No, thank YOU, Jon. It's wonderful to hear that we still can entertain you. We get letters from people of all ages who still find enormous fun in these books. We don't personally have a fan club, though I'm sure somewhere out there one does exist. Anyone know about a Hanna-Barbera Fan Club? Let us all know if there is one. By the way, we're not sure what new titles we will be doing. It all depends on the reaction of you fans to these books. Also... The best way to get back issues is from your local comic store.)

FRED ON COVER OF C.Q.!

Strange as it may sound, weird as it may seem — it's unbelievable but TRUE! Fred Flintstone® is the coverboy of Caveman's Quarterly magazine! It's all carefully — and hilariously — detailed in The Flintstones® #10, sale NOW.

But how, you might ask, could such a prehistoric miracle happen? Well, thanks for asking! Because food lover that he is (is that an understatement or what!), Fred has been selected as the Poster Boy for "Lovable Bob's Brontoburgers" — the king of all burger joints.

All Fred has to do is never eat another burger unless it's Bob's! Well, brontoburger heaven isn't all it's cooked up to be in this laugh-a-second feast that takes on the fast food chains, advertising and your funnybone — winning each time!

Don't miss The Flintstones® #10, on sale at your local shops right now!

SCOOBY AND SHAGGY BECOME WEREWOLVES!

Zoinks! That's right! Read it and weep!

Poor Scooby-Doo™ and his pal Shaggy™ are turned into werewolves in Scooby-Doo™ #9, on sale NOW!

"Scooby-Doo™, Werewolf Are You?" is a tale of terror, miserable misfortune and high-paced hilarity as one of the gang's most vicious enemies wreaks havoc, intent on revenge!

Take a trip to the werewolf capital of the world where gypsies predict disaster and the populace becomes a maddening, torch-bearing mob! A strange evil engulfs the land — and only Scooby™ and the gang can stop it! This is a Scooby-Doo™ story you'll never forget!

A PUP NAMED SCOOPY,™ TOO

Next month promises to be a Scooby-Doo™ gala celebration! In addition to the special surprise in Scooby-Doo™ #10 (see related story), get ready for Hanna-Barbera® Presents ... #5: A Pup Named Scooby-Doo™! Written by Bill Metheny (who wrote much of the series) and pencilled by Scott Jeralds (who designed a major portion of the series), this is the first time ever that his hugely popular TV series has appeared in comic form!

That's just another reason to run (don't walk!) to your local store to get your very own copy of this first-ever event!

The lead story, "The Pizza Delivery From Beyond" has all the ingredients of a hilarious story where Scooby and the gang gather clues to determine who ordered the "double horror deluxe!" (JINKIES!)

Don't miss the adventures of Scooby™ and the gang when they were just mere pups!

SPIEGLE, EVANIER
NEXT MONTH!

It's finally here!

The promise we made is on its way — and this is an issue you dare not miss!

Newly-created by Scooby-Doo's™ most famous comic book artist and writer, Dan Spigle and Mark Evanier, "The Really Big Show" in Scooby-Doo™ #10 is the first story these fan-favorites have worked on in almost fifteen years. And it's one of their best ever!

The story finds Scooby™ and the gang trapped in a zany mystery featuring spooks who go haywire on the set of a famous TV show.

You'd better reserve your copy today! This one is a sure sellout!

NEXT MONTH: PRIVATE EYE FRED

Feeling like a loser because of his boring job as a brontocrane operator, Fred Flintstone® seeks the world of danger and intrigue — as a private eye! Joining Bedrock's® super sleuth Perry Gunnite™, Fred dons his Sherlock Holmestone cop, grabs his magnifying glass and follows the clues to find the missing "Sunrise!" Little do they know of the danger which awaits as they search for the valuable missing piece of art!

It's a laugh-packed mystery with shocking conclusion! And this is just one of three big stories on its way next month in The Flintstones® #11!

SPIEGLE, EVANIER PLAN ANOTHER SCOOPY™?

It's been a long time since Dan Spigle and Mark Evanier teamed up for a Scooby-Doo™ story!

We're in the talking stage right now for a second action-packed issue with these two comic dynamos! Stay toned!
